

MRS. PLATT HAS PUT TIoga LODGE ON THE MARKET

'Domestic Differences Prompt
a Quick Sacrifice,' Says
the Ad. in the Case.

Tioga Lodge, at Highland Mills, N. Y., the beautiful country home which Senator Thomas C. Platt presented to his wife, Lillian Janeway Platt, in partial settlement of her demands upon the occasion of their recent separation, can be bought for $37,000 cash.

Mrs. Platt is so anxious to sell the place that she will sacrifice it for this figure, although the twenty-four acres of ground, the fourteen-room residence, the stables, gardens and improvements cost Senator Platt $100,000 or more.

Mrs. Platt has been trying to dispose of Tioga Lodge ever since the Senator turned it over to her. She offered it to J. Edward Bock, who skipped out with a lot of diamonds belonging to Usden Lane dealers, and was arrested on the Pacific Coast.

Real estate agents have labored valiantly to get hold of a purchaser, but the October panic pretty well disposed of many men who would have been glad to buy the Platt home, from which one of the finest views of the Ramapo Mountains is obtainable. Mrs. Platt has finally placed the property in the hands of the Farmers' Mortgage & Loan Company.

Advertisements placed in the newspapers state that "domestic differences prompt a quick sacrifice" of the property. The name of Mrs. Platt does not appear, nor is there any intimation that the place is Tioga Lodge.

Casual inquirers at the office of the Farmers' Mortgage and Loan Company are told that the property is near Central Valley, N. Y. Tioga Lodge is about half an hour's drive from either Central Valley or Highland Mills, station on a branch of the Erie Railroad, running from Turner's, above Tuxedo, on the main line over to Newburg. Mrs. Platt has been living at Tioga Lodge most of the time since she separated from the Senator, but country life does not agree with her. It is not believed by her friends that she wants to sell out for $37,000 because she needs the money, although she has been living a heavy expense from various sources since she forced her way into a house in Thirty-ninth street, near Seventh avenue, and caught her aged husband in the company of another woman.

This is the Way to Keep Well without Cascarets

Live outdoors, and let your work be exercise. Rise walk ten miles a day.
Eat little meat, no white bread, no rich pastries. Eat many green vegetables, plenty of fruit, and bread
made of whole wheat.

Do that, and you'll have little need of a laxative while you keep young.
But when you grow old, and the bowels become less active, you will need this help anyway.

Cascarets are for those who live indoors,
who eat rich foods, who eat and drink too much.

This vegetable laxative does for them
exactly what proper living would do.
Requires no irritation, as pill cathartics, salo and castor oil do. Its action is just as natural--just as gentle--as the action of laxative foods.

So choose your own way.
Give Nature the aid of proper food and exercise, else the help of Cascarets.
One way serves as well as the other. But some way is essential. For one cannot keep well unless the bowels move freely once every day.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet.
The box is marked like this:

The vest-pocket box is 10 cents.
The month-treatment box 50 cents.
12,000,000 boxes sold annually.
